Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1889.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

A city and county seat of 8,000 inhabitants situated in a valley, at 4000 feet above sea level. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad in the county, and is the largest and greatest in the world. Wheat, corn, rice, cotton and fruits produced for export in large quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $400,000. A planing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, lime factory, tobacco manufactory, two foundries, three brickyards, breweries, tanneries, leather, ice houses, two large cotton mills in the city, and several in the county, a splendid driving park and one opera house. Five banks centering in Hopkinsville. Building and Loan Association, Commercial Club, a telephone exchange, numbered streets and houses, and city lighted by gas. Macmillan's Drug Store, the largest in the state, with over 1000 items. Eleven schools, two colleges, a high school and the finest system of public schools, white and colored, in the state. Western Kentucky Lanes Asylum with a population of 650, two miles east of the city. A $100,000 court house with town clock in the tower. A one floor, one room, company of state, the Little River furnace, adequate supply of water for all purposes. Real estate low and reshapeable. Fine opening for wooden mill, pack packing establishment, fruit canary, tannery and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly healthy.

The St. Louis Exposition opens tomorrow.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick is now a life convict in an English prison.

The Lexington fair drew immense crowds last week and turned out to be a grand success.

Jno. L. Sullivan's mother died Friday while the big bruiser was on a howling drunk.

Henry Shaw, the St. Louis philanthropist, left the bulk of his $2,500,000 estate to the city of St. Louis.

Ten thousand lives were lost by recent storms in Japan. Twice as many more persons were made homeless.

Jno. R. Mock, a carpenter, who was arrested on suspicion of sending the dynamite machine to the Lexington Leader, was tried and acquitted last week.

The National Press Association in session at Detroit elected C. A. Lee, of Pawtucket, R. I., President, and selected Boston as the place for the next meeting. Kentucky was not represented.

Hon. Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, and Mr. Chas. H. Fluit, of New York, have been appointed to represent the United States in the Congress of American Nations next month.

The list of delegates so far appointed to represent the United States at the Congress of the American Nations, at Washington next month, is composed of six Republicans and four Democrats.

Mrs. Mary Donnelly, the nurse who was stabbed by Mrs. Robt. Ray Hamilton, Atlantic City, N. J., is pronounced out of danger and Mrs. Hamilton's offense will be reduced to atrocious assault, for which the penalty is from two to five years imprisonment.

Reedman Holliday, the lone highwayman who has terrorized Michigan and other Northwestern States for months, has been captured and lodged in jail. His latest exploit was the robbing of a stage coach and the murder of one of the passengers about ten days ago.

Mrs. W. E. Christian, nee Julia Jackson, the only child of Stonewall Jackson, died at Charlotte, N. C., Friday after two weeks illness of typhoid fever. Her husband is editor of a weekly paper there called the Charlotte Democrat. The remains were taken to Lexington, Va., for interment.

A special Congressional election to fill a vacancy will be held in the Third Louisiana district to-day and the Republicans are moving heaven and earth to overcome a Democratic majority of 4,000 or 5,000. A delegation of visiting statesmen and boobies from the North were sent down ten days ago to "assist" the Republicans, and manufacture some excuse for a contest to unseat the Democrats who will be elected.

Col. Bennett H. Young was burned to death at Harroldburg a few nights since because of a change made in the schedule of trains on the Monon road, supposed to be locally controlled by Col. Young. The citizens of the town published a card in Friday's Courier-Journal disclaiming any sympathy with the outrage, to which Col. Young replies declaring he had nothing to do with the change and expressing his willingness to use his influence to have the train taken off again put back.

Sylvester Morales, an ex convict, has turned bandit in Southern California and some of his exploits rival in boldness anything in the annals of crime. Ten days ago he abducted a beautiful Mexican girl from near San Diego and has forced her to accompany him on his rounds of murder, robbery and horse-stealing, although her father has invoked the whole civil power of three counties to help him to rescue his daughter. He has committed several murders and leads his pursues in a wild game chase over the country, stealing a fresh horse every few nights. Being a Spaniard, he finds shelter with his countrymen, who are afraid to refuse it, and as far as he has eluded and defied the officers and terrorized the whole country.

The "arrangement" between the editors of the Elizabethtown Independent and State Senator D. L. May, since the facts have been made public, turns out to have been a disgraceful affair and a very corrupt "sell-out," based on a contract in writing. Nor is this all. Editor Stovall joyfully admits in his paper that he has lied in some of his statements about the matter. This alters the phase of affairs, and whatever has heretofore appeared in these columns that may have been construed into a defense of Stovall is hereby "expunged from the record." There is a wide difference between this sort of business and inserting reading lists at so much a line.

The committee investigating the West Virginia gubernatorial vote has called a large number of fraudulent votes cast for Goff in Mercer, one of the counties on the Virginia line. In one precinct 78 negro votes were thrown out, because they were proven to have voted in Virginia the same day, and in another precinct 40 more were found who were registered voters in Virginia. These votes were also thrown out. Fleming, the Democratic candidate, has now 140 votes ahead and will undoubtedly be declared elected Governor. As soon as the work is done the Legislature will be convened to receive the Committee's report.

Corporal Tanner caused a howl of indignation to be raised by fixing a price upon the virtue of soldiers' widows, in making the following statement in a speech at Milwaukee during the G. A. R. meeting: "I tell you, comrades, this $12 a month, small as it may seem, will often preserve the virtue of some dead comrade's widow." His whole speech was ordered to be expunged from the records, but the ubiquitous reporter was on hand and took it down.

There are 43 Presidential postmasters in Kentucky, and thirty-four of them are Democrats, all of whom will hold office until their terms expire. Those in this section are Owensboro, which expires December 5; Henderson, November 2; Hopkinsville, July 2, 1890; Princeton, October 5, 1889. The Republicans have implications for everyone of the offices and in many places are revenue over the delay.—Owensboro Messenger.

The long-delayed return from Breathitt county are in at last and Sharp's official majority is 33,322. The total vote was, Sharp 148,681, Cullen, 115,59, Cobb, 3,000. Compared with the vote of last year, the result shows that 35,000 Democrats and 40,000 Republicans staid away from the polls.

Ex-Judge A. M. Pulliam, who killed Jas. Miller at Hardinburg, and was tried last weekend given a sentence of 15 years, accepted the verdict without dilatory motions and was taken to the penitentiary Friday. Seven of the jurors wanted to hang him.

A Congress composed of delegates from the various countries of North, Central and South America, will assemble at Washington next month. The body will visit Louisville Nov. 1 and will make an excursion to Mammoth Cave while in Kentucky.

Wm. Slack Montgomery, a son of Judge James Montgomery, has passed a competitive examination and been appointed to the U. S. Naval Cadetship by his uncle, Congressman A. H. Montgomery, of the Fourth District.

A second election to vote all to the Henderson State Line railroad was held in Henderson yesterday.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every person who will furnish him with the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D., '89.

A. W. GLEASON,

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the system. Said for treatments, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

THE CRAFT.

The Grayson Republican is dead. J. W. Miller has begun the publication of the Democrat at Ashland.

W. G. Oysterstreet, who recently started the Springfield, Ky., News, has sold it to J. N. Saunders.

The Galtettsburg Democrat, whose editor was an Indian agent under the last administration, has come out strong for Cleveland in 1892.

The most sensible course for the editors of the Frankfort Capitol and Richmond Climax to pursue is to drop the controversy over the executive committee of the K. P. A.

The editors of the News and Democratic, the rival papers of Lawrenceburg, are abusing themselves and disgusting their readers by trying to bluff each other with bets on their respective circulations.

Sells Bros. Against the Field.

In the race for first money among circuses, Sells Brothers will win, hands down. They have demonstrated the fact that the best attractions always are the most profitable.

The Desermin Journal man while discussing the subject of flannel shirts with the Georgetown Times, should be careful and not put his foot in it. Maybe he is disagreeing with some body who doesn't wear 'em.

Thomas H. Corbin, one of Christian County's substantial men and loyal citizens, died at his home on the Clarksville Pike Friday evening, August 16th, 1889, at 7 o'clock. Mr. Corbin was born in Warren county, Ky., Oct. 31st, 1826, came to Christian Co. when a boy of fifteen, worked on the farm and went to school alternately until grown, making his home most of the time with Davenport Jones, father of Mr. Lucien Jones; Carter L. Renshaw, and later with Mr. B. S. Campbell. Married Henrietta H. Caldwell May 10th, 1856, who bore him two children: Ermine, wife of J. J. Van Cleve, and a son, the latter dying in infancy. In January, 1860, his loving wife crossed the fair river and left him to raise their only child. How well and faithfully he cared for little Ermine, by toiling through heat and cold to provide for her every want and give her a liberal education needs no witness, other than the loving and sorrowing daughter, now the mother of three beautiful children who were the pets and idols of their grandpa. The writer has known Mr. Corbin intimately since he came to the country in 1840. He was my friend for forty-nine years, and he was as true in his friendship as the needle to the pole. So strong were the ties that bound him to his neighbors and friends, that strong men when looking for the last time upon his lifeless form, bowed down and wept as though when a loving parent is being laid down to rest.

We do not claim perfection for our departed friend. "There is none that doth good and sineth not," and he doubtless had such faults and imperfections as are the common property of a fallen race. Yet they were as dross to fine gold in contrast with his many virtuous and noble traits of character.

Mr. Corbin was a quiet, modest man, a man of few words, but was ever ready for action when duty called. He was a brave man, for none but the brave stand for the right to condemn the wrong. More, he was a man of clean lips. No unchaste or impure words were uttered by him. He was a charitable and forgiving man. No viper nestled in his breast. He was an industrious, thoughtful, and intelligent farmer; hence a prosperous man, leaving a handsome landed estate for those whom he loved, and for whom he toiled. And last of all he was a Christian man, fearing God, and keeping his commandments. In earthly life, he united with the Christian Church, was a regular attendant of God's house, died in the faith and rests from his labors.

Let us who knew and loved him keep his memory green in our hearts, and emulate his many sterling qualities and Christian virtues, and it will not be long until our departed friend will greet us on the banks of the river of life. Until then, friend of my boyhood, young manhood and old age, Farewell.

CREAM OF NEWS.

The Penny System.

The Louisville & Nashville road began Sunday giving exact charge to purchasers of tickets over all its lines. The penny system is gradually coming into favor is the south and the insignificant copper will soon cease to be treated with disdain. The Courier-Journal gives this as the law concerning pecuniary: "The United States Revised Statutes provide that inland coins of the denominations of five cents and under are legal tender to the amount of twenty-five cents.
The Treasurer of the United States and Assistant Treasurers are also required to give legal tender notes for such coins presented in sums and multiples of $20, if doce up in packages, each denomination to itself. No pecuniary is made for the redemption of mutilated coins. They can be sold only at their bullion value."

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. W. H. Holmes, of La Grange, Ind., and Miss Annie Allison, of Greenville, were married at the latter place Aug. 26, R. v. W. L. Nourse, of this city, officiating.

A special to the Nashville American Thursday announced the secret marriage of Miss Maggie Hill, of Sadler, Tenn., and A. F. Tilley, of Adam Station, which took place four months ago, but was not known to the public. The parties stated that they went to Nashville a few days after the race in May and were quietly married by Dr. J. B. West. The contracting parties are said to be very popular in a city.—Clarksville

The colored people had a big exhibition Friday to the U. B. F. convention at Bowling Green.

The Dull-Lillard contest case will come up to-day. Judge Jno. Mc-Carroll represents Dr. Dull.

Mr. A. S. Gentry has rented a cottage on Jessup avenue and moved his family to the city, from Pember.

A social was given at Mr. John Young's Friday evening in honor of Misses Simpson and Smith of Elkhorn.

Wm. Singery, the Hopkinsville horse entered in the 2:30 race at Hartford, Conn., Thursday, came out sixth in a field of ten.

Billy Emerson is as bright and witty off the stage as he is before the footlights. In speaking of a bad hotel he described it as "One of those oce-egg-for-breakfast hotels."

The show was ended Saturday by a good rain, which has been followed by frequent showers during the last two days. Clusters which were running low are again filled and late crops are being greatly benefited.

day.

The candidates began active cavassing yesterday and fairly buzzed around wherever the crowds were seen.

Don't forget the Mistletoe show tomorrow night. Price 75 and 50 cents.

There is talk of another planing mill being started in town.

Circuit Court News.

Court was called to order at 10 o'clock, Judge Jno. H. Grace in the bench.

Dawson.

M. S. Major, Jno. H. Myers, J. C.
Craven and J. D. Craven were sworn in as deputy sheriffs.

The Stanley murder case is set for next Monday.

This week will be occupied in clearing the docket of minor cases, gaining carrying concealed weapons, etc.

Several of the parties indicted for gambling last spring compromised their cases yesterday by paying a fine of $10 and costs which amounted to $9.45 in each case.

A rather small crowd was to town yesterday, owing to the inclemency of the weather. But very few of those summoned to serve on the jury failed to show up.

GRAND JURY.

J. B. Dade, Jno. H. Vaughn, W. T. Bronagh, Gus Robles, Jno. H. Browning, Winston Hessey, A. H. Wallace, Bou. C. Boyd, Jno. R. Green, Bellevue Jno. B. Marie, Jas. M. Clark, Wm. H. Ilves, Geo. Dahey, Col. Chas. Russell, col.

Judge Grace delivered a lengthy charge to the Madisonville Hustler, Charlie Morris was convicted in only one case of violating the prohibition law and fined $200.
He was sent to jail to serve out this fine. There were several other cases against him and on Wednesday Col.
A. H. Clark went to Madisonville and effected a compromise of these by having Morris confess judgment in four cases for $50 each. This makes his fine foot up $100 and at last accounts he was still in jail.
Morris lives in this city and had been in Madisonville only a few weeks.

Erie Progess: Rev. T. E. Tilley of Pembroke, is holding a meeting at the Russellville St. Baptist church, this city, with good attendance daily. — Jailer Rickman has even 16 prisoners now and still claims he has room for more. A jail is like unto an omnibus, always room for one more. — Seymour Baggett and a man by the name of Stephens were arrested and brought to this city yesterday charged with robbery. Mayes & McElwain's store in Northern Todd last Monday night.
Some of the stolen goods have been found and there seem to be every reason their guilt.

Last Thursday some movers got in to a dispute with A. F. Davenport, toll-keeper on the Cadiz pike, and accused him of charging too much toll.

One of them became abusive and so-cused Davenport of dishonesty, when L. W. Means, who was near by in his buggy, put in and spoke rather roughly to the man who was making the trouble. With this the mover turned to his wagon and taking out his gun shot him if he interfered further. At this stage the sheriff was sent for and two of them put under arrest. They appeared for trial Friday morning, but both proved that they were not the row and the case was dismissed. The real offender escaped and made himself scarce until the clouds rolled by.

The only way to cure fever and ague is either to neutralize the potions which cause the disease or to expel them from the system. Ayer's Ago Cure operates in both ways. It is a warranted specific for all forms of malarial disorders, and never fails to cure. Try it.

"The Venetian Nights," the scenic spectacular first part of Cleveland's Hawley Minstrels, which will be here to-morrow night, is a glimpse of fairy land and its several transformations reveal such an exhibition of splendor that recently an old lady, on beholding it, was so carried away that she exclaimed in an ecstasy of delight mingled with surprise and doubt. "That must be heaven, but for heaven's sake where's the white folks, then? all coons!"

The Primitive Baptist association, of which Trigg county forms a part, met at Long Run church on the last Sunday in August. Eld. Wm. Dyer was elected moderator and Eld. H.
Smith, of Ceremonial Springs, was again chosen clerk. The next meeting will be held with Cub Creek church, Stewart county, Tenn., on Sept. 1st.

A newly patented machine for making a holt-stroog, mule-hab and pig-tight fence has been on exhibition at the court house door for a week. It has attracted a great deal of attention from office-holders and candidates who are just now interested in fixing their fences.

Some people will continue to shake with chills and try to cure them by taking Quinine, at the same time runthe chance of losing their hearing.
Adam's Microbe Killer will cure chills permanently and take the Malaria out of your system thorough-

Our Schools.

We are glad to note the general prosperous outlook for our schools.

It will be remembered that the extension of South Kentucky College begins to-day Tuesday, September 3d.

Already many students both young ladies and young gentlemen have arrived in our city for the purpose of entering college. Under the able management of the President, Prof. Schuyler, we feel assured the school will have a prosperous session.

Mr. Buckner Leavel, our leading Druggist, always wide awake to the interest of his patrons and general public, has just succeeded in securing the agency for Adam's Microbe Killer. Owing to the large demand for this medicine the manufacturer will not be able to ship his stock for several days. He has several orders already for the medicines, so place your order so you can receive it out of this first shipment or you may have to wait for several weeks.
